

African American
Credit Union

Hall of Fame Legacy Inductee

Anthony R. Grant

1965 - 2010

Induction

July 17, 2023

Anthony R. Grant was a proud credit union member for more than 22 years, with SRP Federal Credit Union as his primary financial institution for more than 18 years. He faithfully served SRP as a volunteer for 17 years, including on the Board of Directors, Credit Committee, and Finance Committee.

His professional career included over 19 years of service at the Savannah River Site, where he handled multiple assignments. He was Manager, Contracts, Capital, and Travel Accounting with Savannah River Nuclear Solutions. Mr. Grant applied the lessons learned from his varied experiences to his service as SRP board member. His knowledge and leadership skills were invaluable as the board sought to establish policies that would lead the credit union into the millennium during his tenure. Mr. Grant believed, “the opportunity to serve on the SRP Federal Credit Union Board of Directors representing this great membership is truly a rewarding experience.”

Mr. Grant made civic involvement a priority, which included being a founding member of the African-American Credit Union Coalition and leading multiple committees for the South Carolina State University National Alumni Association.

Mr. Grant was born and raised in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He was a graduate of South Carolina State University and received his MBA from Nova Southeastern University.
