André Lucas

Director of Compliance
MD|DC Credit Union Association

André A. Lucas is the MD|DC Credit Union Association's Director of Compliance. His current responsibilities include active involvement in consulting with affiliated credit unions on operational issues, policies and procedure development, and federal and state compliance issues. He also provides training in the areas of Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and Collections and conducts on-site BSA compliance testing for affiliated credit unions.

Mr. Lucas began his career in the financial industry as a Loan Officer/Collector with American Finance Company in 1977. His credit union career began as a Collection Officer with Pentagon Federal Credit Union in January 1984. In July 1986 he accepted the position of Collections Manager with Commonwealth One Federal Credit Union in Alexandria, Virginia. During his 20 years with Commonwealth One Federal Credit Union, he was one of the first elected officers for the Capital Area Collection Managers Roundtable Group, serving as the first Chairman between 1995 and 1998, Vice Chairman in 2000, and again as the Chairman in 2001 and 2002.

Mr. Lucas currently holds CUNA's Credit Union Compliance Expert (CUCE) and Bank Secrecy Act Compliance Specialist (BSACS) designations. He has developed a close affiliation with the Capital Area Collection Managers Roundtable, the Capital Area Compliance Roundtable, and the Bank Secrecy Act Compliance Roundtable. In addition, he currently serves as Parliamentarian on the Board of Directors for the AACUC's Eastern Regional Chapter.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Mr. Lucas graduated from Mackin High School and served three years active duty in the United States Navy.
